Defense Ministry Spokesman Says Number of Junks Massed and Approaching Quemoy Island

MAY BE AN INVASION

Taipei, Formosa, July 24—(AP)—A defense ministry spokesman said today a number of junks were approaching Quemoy island under cover of a Chinese Communist artillery barrage.

It may be the long expected invasion attempt against the Nationalist held island used as a blockade base against the Reds.

The spokesman said Nationalist forces on Quemoy, just off the mainland Port of Amoy, were adequate to meet the expected Red attack. He said they would be supported by locally assigned Nationalist air and naval units.

Communist artillery began bombarding the town of Guanau, on Quemoy's northeast coast, at 11 p. m. Sunday (8 a. m. EST Sunday).

The spokesman said President Truman's July 27 request to halt air and sea operations against the Red mainland did not preclude the defense of Nationalist positions.

Asked whether there was effective cooperation between Nationalists and the United States Seventh Fleet, assigned to safeguard Formosa from Red invasion, the spokesman replied: "That's a military secret."

"He hinted Nationalist air and naval support would not be given Quemoy if invasion develops without Washington's approval."

The spokesman expressed doubt that a reported large concentration of Communist craft in the vicinity of Quemoy would pass the island for a direct attack on Formosa.

"It looks as if Quemoy is going to be their target," he said.

The Nationalist garrison on Quemoy is commanded by Gen. Hu Lien, rated one of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's most able commanders. He inflicted a smashing defeat on the Reds last winter when they attempted to conquer the island.

Intelligence reports said 1,300 motorized junks and other small wooden craft were massed in seeming readiness for a Red invasion of Quemoy.

Military sources said the danger of an attack on Formosa was greater now than it was two months ago.

Camp Breckinridge, Ky., Is Reactivated

Washington, July 24—(AP)—The Army today announced it will reopen Camp Breckinridge, Ky., as a replacement training center.

It said the camp would start receiving recruits about mid-September and could reach its training capacity of 22,000 men by Oct. 1.

Breckinridge is the second training center to be reopened since the start of the Korean war. Camp Jackson, near Columbia, S. C., was reactivated about 10 days ago.

The two camps augment training programs at the four regular Army training division centers. These are Forts Ord, Calif.; Knox, Ky.; Dix, N. J.; and Riley, Kan.

Pact Nations Will Discuss Five-Point Program at Parley

London, July 24—(AP)—The 12 Atlantic Pact nations—spurred by the crisis in Korea—get to work tomorrow on a five-point program aimed at bolstering their defenses against Communism in the west.

The urgent need for quick action was stressed by America's Charles M. Spofford, who is expected to serve as permanent chairman of the new Atlantic Pact Council, a sort of civilian high command.

The council, created last May by the foreign ministers of the 12 pact nations at their London meeting, has the following tasks:

1. To create a balanced collective force based in Europe with each country specializing in particular types of forces so as to prevent costly duplications.
 2. To set up mobile reserve forces which can be dispatched to any trouble spot in the west's defense chain.
 3. Partial mobilization of industry for war production.
 4. To lay down a master plan of rearmament fitted to the strategic defense plan outlined by the chiefs of staff.
 5. To see that the pact partners carry out their assignments after they have accepted them.
- Meeting with Spofford on the council will be deputies of the foreign ministers of the 11 other pact nations—Britain, France, Italy, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Portugal, Norway, Denmark, Iceland and Canada.

HIGHWAY FATALITY

Meadville, July 23—(AP)—Jacob Anthony, 55, R. D. 2, was killed by an auto last night near Conneaut Lake on Route 6.

Blaze in Garage Building Tops the List Of Fire Calls Answered By Department

Warren firemen partook of a varied menu over the week end with the main course being served up at eight o'clock last evening when all equipment responded to an alarm from the Weigel Motor Sales at 323 Pennsylvania avenue, west.

The building is owned by Mrs. Alice Moll of Russell. Damage was estimated at several hundred dollars.

The fire in the garage apparently started near a landing on a stairway leading to the second floor and burned its way through a partition to the third floor. Fire chief C. A. Albaugh is continuing his investigation as to the cause of the blaze.

No cars were involved in any fire loss, and firemen spread salvage covers to minimize water damage.

About a thousand feet of 2½ inch hose was laid, and a traffic jam resulted in the block between Hickory and Liberty streets. Firemen complained today that sections of hose were ruined by cars driving over them, and arrests are expected to follow. Several license numbers were obtained.

Neither Wills Cleaners nor Waxmans Furniture Store, neighboring establishments reported any damage from smoke of the blaze.

On Friday afternoon shortly after two o'clock, firemen and their equipment went to the New Process Company when an alarm sounded off as the sprinkler system of the company was being tested. There was no damage.

Saturday afternoon at 4:55 p. m., the pavement in the 300 block of Hickory street was washed off with a hose as the result of a parked car leaking a quantity of gasoline. There was no fire.

Sunday at 1:45 p. m., firemen were called to 15 Dartmouth street where a garage owned by Peter Bohren was on fire. The blaze was controlled with a booster line and small damage resulted.

OPPOSITION TO KING LEOPOLD IS TIGHTENING

Brussels, Belgium, July 24—(AP)—King Leopold and his social Christian government today faced tightening opposition which promised to take a far more solid form than catcalls and press blasts.

A Socialist leader declared that a wave of strikes would start today in Belgium's Walloon area. They would spread, he said, until the king quits the throne he regained only two days ago.

The Socialist spokesman indicated that no general strikes are planned immediately. Expecting the abdication fight to be a long one, the anti-Leopold party is loath to use all its weapons at once.

Leopold has shown no sign he intends to submit to his opponents' demands that he abdicate and let his eldest son, Crown Prince Baudouin, reign.

Liberal ministers of state discovered this yesterday when they were summoned to a meeting of the crown council at Laeken palace. They withdrew in protest when told the king would only read them an address and they would have no chance to submit demands for his abdication.

The anti-Leopold Socialist state ministers already had withdrawn from the council. The king thus found his crown body reduced from 28 to 10—all members of the Social Christian party which voted to recall him from Switzerland.

Prince Baudouin received a warm welcome from the Leopoldists yesterday when he fulfilled his first public engagement by presenting awards to civilians for bravery during the past year. Some 500 persons cheered.

Leopold himself remained secluded behind the walls of Laeken.

WOMAN IS KILLED IN AUTO-TRUCK ACCIDENT

Greensburg, July 24—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Dredzickie of McKeesport died today of injuries suffered in an auto-truck collision near Irwin.

Mrs. Dredzickie died about an hour after the mishap on the Lincoln highway.

Her husband, Tony, 33, is in fair condition at Westmoreland hospital. He suffered back injuries.

State police were unable to determine the cause of the mishap. They said, however, the McKeesport man's auto hit a truck, knocking the spare gasoline tank off the vehicle. The gasoline ignited but neither the truck nor the automobile caught fire. The truck driver was not hurt.

Top Military Leaders To Be Asked For An Accounting of the Defense Budgets

Washington, July 24—(AP)—Congress members called on top military leaders today for an appraisal of the nation's fighting readiness and an accounting of the billions spent on defense since 1947.

As lawmakers pushed emergency measures which would hasten the country toward a virtual war footing, the House Armed Services Committee launched a closed-door inquiry into the state of American preparedness.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said in advance that the big question Pentagon planners will be asked is: What have the Armed Forces to show for the $48,000,000,000 they have been allotted in the past four years?

The committee led off today with Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations. He will be followed on Wednesday by Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff.

On Friday, the committee has called Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, who also was director of the budget during some of the time when defense requests were pared sharply; Gen. J. Clayton Collins, Army chief of staff; and Lt. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, deputy chief of staff for planning.

For security reasons, their testimony will not be heard publicly. But Vinson told reporters the nation will be informed on essential details.

Appropriations for the 1950 fiscal year which ended June 30 were in the neighborhood of $13,000,000,000, not counting new contract authority.

At eight o'clock this evening, members of the Corydon taxpayers' committee will hold a public meeting for discussion of matters pertaining to the school, the session to be held on the lawn at the home of Henry Larson. C. Henry Nicholson, attorney for Warren, will be present to represent the citizens' group and the committee asks that all interested persons be present.

Hoboken Shipyard Tied Up By Walkout

Hoboken, N. J., July 24—(AP)—Eleven hundred men struck at the big Todd Shipyard here today.

In Brooklyn, 1,500 more stayed away from work at the Todd yards there, waiting to take a strike vote later in the day.

Hoboken pickets took up their march at midnight, despite a plea from Federal Mediator Howard T. Colvin in Washington, who telegraphed that shipbuilding and ship repair are vital because of the Korean situation.

The union replied that while it "always put our country first," it had been negotiating with the company long enough.

The yards employ about 2,100. Police said there are no ships at the yards here but seven at Brooklyn. It was not immediately learned whether they were of types recently ordered taken out of mothballs because of the Korean crisis.

34 Servicemen Die In Blazing Pyre Of Air Force Transport

Myrtle Beach, S. C., July 24—(AP)—An Air Force transport hurtled into swampland near here yesterday and exploded into a blazing funeral pyre for 34 servicemen.

The dead included 30 members of the Tennessee Air National Guard, en route to Nashville from war games in this area. Four Air Reserve crewmen were on the plane.

Minutes after the C-46 climbed from the municipal airport here it plunged into the pine-spotted muckland. The servicemen were still within sight of the airport until just before the ship crashed.

Towering, gasoline-fed flames pushed would-be rescuers back. Helpless, they watched the cremation. When the flames died, white-jacketed army medical corpsmen began removing the bodies. Late last night, they had recovered 15. The others were trapped in buried, charred wreckage.

Bits of the big transport were flung in a 100-yard circle. The wings were still further away.

There were conflicting reports about the crash. Some said the plane seemed to explode in mid-air. But a pilot who flew over the Carolina swampland said the ship didn't blow up until it struck.

KILLED IN DIVE

Charleroi, July 24—(AP)—Raymond Masnovy, 30, of Bentleyville, died of a fractured skull suffered in a dive yesterday at the Redd Beach swimming pool near Charleroi. There was only three or four feet of water in the pool which was being refilled during the night.

Waynesburg Prophet Predicts Dry 29th

Waynesburg, July 24—(AP)—This southwestern Pennsylvania community's rain prophet doesn't give up hope.

He is Attorney John L. Daily whose firm conviction it always rains July 29 in Waynesburg has been foiled for the last three years.

He contends that since 1877 when records begin, it has rained every July 29 with six exceptions. Daily customarily bets a hat with some national figure that it will rain on July 29.

Eighty Scouts Are In Camp at Olmsted

Eighty Scouts and six leaders opened the 24th season of the Boy Scout Camp Olmsted Sunday. The Scouts arrived in trucks and cars to enjoy their weeks stay.

Troop 5 Scouts and their parents had a picnic lunch at the camp with Mr. and Mrs. Banghart as their guests.

The evening campfire was devoted to getting acquainted with the camp staff and learning some camp songs. Several of the Jamboree Scouts on the staff told of their experiences at Valley Forge.

The camp staff consists of Frank Parker, camp director; Richard Schuler, program director, assisted by Charles Conway, and Leroy Salerno; Dennis Hedges is quartermaster; Clark Wright store keeper. Joe Carr of Youngsville Aquatics director assisted by Dick Rutledge. Mrs. Emory Jordan of Lottsville is back for her third season as camp cook. She is assisted by John Mourer of Youngsville.

Census Shows Population of Nation Has Grown 19,000,000 In Ten Years

Washington, July 24—(AP)—The population of the United States has risen almost 19,000,000 in the past 10 years to a 1950 total officially estimated at 160,250,000.

In announcing preliminary figures for both the nation as a whole and for the individual states, the Census Bureau said it still must recheck the totals and account for some 700,000 persons who were on the move during this year's nose-count.

Most of the transients, it said, were either travelers within the country or seamen in the Merchant Marine.

While the final totals will be ready by next December 1, they will not become known until later that month, when President Truman submits them to congress. It will be up to the lawmakers to decide then how many house members each state will have on the basis of the new figures.

Reckoned roughly, each congressional district will have 344,000 inhabitants, compared with the 301,000 figure set in 1940, when the nation's population numbered 131,669,275.

California will be the big gainer in the house, although it is not yet certain by how many seats.

A. Ross Eckler, deputy director of the Census Bureau, told reporters in releasing the figures over the weekend that the best rule of thumb for determining the future apportionment of house members lies in a set of figures made public by the house post office committee two years ago.

At that time, California was expected to gain eight representatives, and the following state one.

North Koreans Hurl Tank-Led Assaults at Separate Yankee Mountain Fronts in the South

Korean Fronts: Americans stop tank-led assaults in two separate sectors of central front. Communists take Kwangju in southwest sector and wheel for possible drive across southern tip of Peninsula. Reds reported building up "considerable strength" in center, west and southwest.

Air War: Clear weather lets planes give heavy support to ground troops. B-29s hit behind lines, dropping bombs on bridges and other strategic targets.

Washington: Congress leaders seek appraisal of U. S. military strength as speculation centers on whether a halted Communist drive in Korea would bring new Soviet diplomatic moves.

London: Spurred by Korea, Atlantic pact nations get ready to work on program aimed at bolstering up their defenses.

By The Associated Press
Tokyo, July 24—(AP)—North Koreans hurled two tank-led assaults at Americans on separate mountain fronts today while a third Red column slithered almost to the tip of South Korea at Kwangju, near the west coast.

With the fall of Kwangju, the Reds were in position to strike behind American lines toward Pusan, key American port 120 air miles to the east. The thrust practically nullified for American use the ports of Yosu and Mokpo, to the south.

General MacArthur warned of increasing Red forces along the winding 150-mile front.

East of Taejon, a savage U. S. First Cavalry counter-attack halted a Red thrust along the mountain highway leading to Yongdong. Farther to the east in the Hamchang sector the South Korean first corps pulled back.

The Reds kicked off with tanks, then shot their infantry at American lines. The U. S. First Cavalry Division, new in the battle, poured out at 10:30 a. m. (7:30 p. m. EST, Sunday). The fight raged an hour and 15 minutes at close quarters, then the Communists broke.

Somewhere north of Yongdong in the central sector, eight North Korean tanks spearheaded 700 Red troops against the U. S. line.

Doughboys and planes knocked out five of the tanks and pinned down two others. Associated Press Correspondent Tom Lambert, who reported the assault, was with the 25th Division last night. Presumably this outfit was fighting off the second Red attack.

As the northerners mounted their twin attacks, U. S. fighters and bombers roared out at dawn in support of hard-pressed American ground troops.

B-29 Superfortresses struck in clear weather at Communist transport lines. They dropped 80 tons of bombs on bridges and roads leading to the Taejon front. All the Superforts returned safely.

The Fifth Air Force moved its advance base from southern Japan to Korea. Already it has at least two fields in operation. This means shorter runs and more time over the battlefield for U. S. fighter planes.

Fast Progress Made On Sheffield Road

Sheffield, July 24—State highway department officials working in conjunction with the S. J. Groves & Son, contractors, report that about one and one-half miles of single lane concrete has been poured between Sheffield and Saybrook on Route 6.

The contractor and the Pennsylvania Railroad are working together to complete the paving of the new highway where it meets West Main street at the railroad crossing, and the bridge approaches near Deerlick St. are nearly completed.

It was believed that pouring of concrete on the highway would be interrupted today due to the fact that the operator of the huge cement mixer was due to enter the hospital.

THREE DIE IN CRASH OF AUTO AND TRUCK

Cadiz, O., July 24—(AP)—An automobile collided head-on with a loaded cattle truck near Cadiz yesterday and the three men in the car, brothers from Pennsylvania, were killed.

The victims were Robert Warnick, 28, father of five children and a resident of Dunbar, and Walter Warnick, 25, and Raymond Warnick, 33, both of High House, near Uniontown.

The truck was loaded with 80 calves.

Acting Coroner L. S. Mikesell returned a verdict of accidental death.

Walker Beach Proves Delightful Spot For Picnic of Times-Mirror Employees

From the first balmy days of spring and all through the summer until late fall, the Times-Mirror carries many items about picnics.

But the 1950 picnic season reached the climax Saturday—at least so far as employees of the Times-Mirror are concerned.

That was the day for their annual picnic at Walker's Beach on Lake Cindarella, with the Times-Mirror publisher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walker, as the official host and hostess.

The festivities got under way shortly after noon with a sumptuous luncheon.

Then to work up an appetite for the evening meal, the picknickers enjoyed croquet, horseshoe pitching and a sizzling round of mushroom ball that sent nearly everybody looking for the liniment bottle.

There's an old adage about saying the good things until last, and that's what happened Saturday. The picnic dinner was out of this world. Steamed clams, shrimp cocktail, deviled crabs, steamed crabs, and chicken barbecued over a charcoal fire were but a few of the delicacies to tempt a person to forget all about special diets and the extra poundage. Harold LaRue was the chef in charge of barbecuing the chickens.

Then came distributions of gifts, with Miss Genevieve McMahon qualifying for the first award of an electric roaster, and Clare Lawson receiving the second high award of a Toastermaster and hostess set. Numerous other awards of hosiery and cartons of cigarettes also were presented.

All in all, the picnic was the kind of a party you could say "Thank you, boss, for a wonderful time," and really mean every word of it.

Granges Will See Bookmobile Movies

The bookmobile motion pictures, Library On Wheels and books and People, will be shown this week at the Warren Grange tonight and at the Pleasant Grange on Wednesday evening. Both showings will be open to the public at nine o'clock after the regular Grange meeting.

The films will be returned to the State Library in Harrisburg on Thursday but may be scheduled for programs at a later date through the Friends of the Warren County Library. There have been many requests for these bookmobile films when organizations begin their meetings again in the fall. Since they have been borrowed from Harrisburg, the Friends of the Warren County Library committee have shown the motion pictures at fifteen community and grange meetings.

Projector arrangements have been made through Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hunter, members of the Friends of the Warren County Library. In addition to the bookmobile films, the Frank Sinatra picture, "The House I Live In", has been shown at most of the meetings through the courtesy of Mr. Hunter.

Third Annual Picnic of Newell Press At Oakview Park Is Delightful Success

The third annual picnic of the Newell Press held Saturday at Oakview Park on the Conewango was doubly enjoyed by the 200 in attendance because of the delightful weather that favored the occasion. Those present included employees and their families.

During the afternoon program, those present lunched at snack tables laden with potato chips, peanuts, watermelon and ice cream sundaes. At 6:30 o'clock a picnic supper prepared by Stewart Kihre and his aides was spread on the tables in the pavilion. The following delicious menu was served, including "the first sweet corn of the season" brought by Host Leo Ward and Mrs. Ward, from Hamburg, N. Y.: Stuffed pork chops, scalloped potatoes, cabbage salad, buttered peas, rolls, coffee, pickles, olives, celery, apple pie topped with ice cream. Soda pop was available throughout the afternoon and evening.

For the evening entertainments the picnicers adjourned to the lodge where round and square dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Harry Summers orchestra, with Lester Akeley doing the calling. Later a cold turkey lunch with all the trimmings was served, winding up a most eventful day. Much praise was given Mr. and Mrs. Ward for a wonderful outing.

Programs printed in five colors were distributed before the athletic events started at two o'clock. A surprise on this part of the program was the personal appearance of two outstanding girl mushball players, Miss Lois Ward and Miss Forslund, of the undefeated Allie Seelbach team of Buffalo, N. Y. A game was played between Swanson's Bantams and Newton's Cockrills. Miss Forslund pitched and Miss Ward caught for the Cockrills for four innings, and they really had the boys whiffing the air. The Seelbachs are undefeated for 1950 and will play in New Jersey soon for the cast central championship. If they are successful there they will compete at San Antonio, Texas, for the championship of the United States.

Following were the batteries for the game Saturday: M. Swanson and K. Simons for the Bantams, and Forslund and Ward for the Cockrills. After a rugged battle the Bantams won, 5 to 4.

Winners of the afternoon program of athletic contests were: Kiddies events, Candy Ielay, Chet Burch, first, Tommy Casey, second; peanut hunt, Sally Babcock, first, Shirley Simmons second, and Marjorie Cousins third; barrel toss, Cleo Stack first, Marjorie Cousins second.

Men's events: Circling bases, Frank Howe, 10½ seconds, Red Sherman second, 11 seconds, barrel throw at second base, Ray Lewis first, John Simmons second, tug-of-war, Red Olson's pressman won over Neil Johnson's Printers, two out of three pulls.

Ladies' events: Rolling pin throw, Mrs. Dora Gustafson; bow and arrow shoot, Mildred Burman first, Carrie Mader second.

The guessing game for all was won by David Slack and Clifford Ryberg. Badminton, canoeing and boating were enjoyed throughout the afternoon and evening by those who chose either of these sports.

Many words of praise were extended Superintendent Carl Peterson, along with Ralph Day, general chairman for the success of the affair. Sub-chairmen who worked untiringly to make the outing a success were: Picnic supper, Martha Whiteshot; refreshments, E. L. Hook and Clifford Ryberg; games and recreation, C. Ray Lewis; cleanup, Ralph Olson. There were many others who deserved recognition for duties performed but they were too numerous to mention.

New Nursing Home At North Warren Is Scene of Dinner

Seventy-five guests, including members of the Warren County Medical Society, their wives, heads of nursing staffs in the Warren General and State Hospital, and a number of non-professional officials of local institutions, attended the dinner at the new Barley Nursing Home at North Warren Thursday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barley as hosts.

Before and after the serving of a delicious chicken dinner prepared by the Lewis Catering Service, the guests were privileged to inspect the large and commodious former Wetmore mansion and the spacious and attractive grounds surrounding it.

The structure, erected of native stone, over 100 years ago, has been newly decorated and is being completely furnished with the latest in nursing home equipment, including special type mattresses. It will be open for service beginning Monday, with a present capacity of twenty beds. Mr. and Mrs. Barley expect to increase the service as admissions justify, until at least forty or fifty beds are installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Barley were the recipients of generous praise for the manner in which they have equipped the residence for a nursing home, and the opinion was unanimous that it is without doubt one of the largest and most sightly to be found in the entire area. The home will be conducted along with the one which the Barleys have been operating at 332 Prospect street for the past several years, with Mr. and Mrs. Barley and family planning to reside at the North Warren residence.

Dr. and Mrs. John Utley, of Erie, were out of town guests. Mrs. Hugh Logan assisted Mrs. Barley in receiving as receptionist.

Softball Schedule At the Playgrounds

Weather permitting, two games scheduled for tomorrow evening will get the Warren playground Girls' Softball League schedule under way.

Players are reminded that play-off games, tie or postponed games for July and the first week in August must be completed no later than August 3, and 5; while those for the later schedule must be done by August 17, 18 and 19. The championship match between winners of the first and second half has been slated for Tuesday, August 22.

The schedule:
July 25—Beaty vs. Crescent, Beaty; Lacy vs. West Side, Lacy.
July 27—Beaty vs. Lacy, Beaty; Crescent vs. West Side, Crescent.
Aug. 1—Beaty vs. West Side, West Side; Crescent vs. Lacy, Crescent.
Aug. 8—Beaty vs. Crescent, Crescent; Lacy vs. West Side, West Side.
Aug. 10—Beaty vs. Lacy, Lacy; Crescent vs. West Side, West Side.
Aug. 15—Beaty vs. West Side, Beaty; Crescent vs. Lacy, Lacy.

NOTICE

Enjoy Life, Don't Be Miserable

There is no letting inactive kidneys make you miserable. Borsona Tablets being a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys are a great aid in helping the kidneys flush out poisonous waste matter and excess acid from the blood. This poisonous waste is often the cause of miserable aches and pains and making you get up nights. Borsona Tablets are also excellent for your liver and stomach. (adv.)

PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM

From President Truman's preparedness proposals to Congress it's evident we are planning to garrison the U. S. and the free world against far wider dangers than war in Korea. He wants sharply higher taxes, a whopping $10,000,000 more for our own defense, and more money to arm friendly nations abroad (estimates on this run up to $5,000,000,000).

If it actually comes to that, it will be a stiff dose. And with it may go rationing and price control in the event the new program drives prices steeply upward.

Yet there's no help for it. These demands should have been made a long time ago. They amount to belated administration recognition that you can't match a toothpick against a telephone pole.

For many months Mr. Truman clung to a decision not to let defense grow so big as to interfere with "life as usual" in this country. During this period Louis Johnson, his defense secretary, repeatedly asserted we could successfully counter Russian aggression should the need arise. The Korean war demonstrates forcefully the irresponsibility of those claims.

Now, under the shock of Soviet action, we might seem to be waking up. A few extra billions might be enough to win in Korea. The president's plans for perhaps $15,000,000,000 additional money show we are at last thinking in the big terms the situation requires.

Mr. Truman's more immediate requests, plus action taken where new laws aren't needed, are logical parts of the basic determination to get this country on a really sound security footing while there is still time.

It was obviously necessary to give Johnson power to call up reservists and National Guardsmen as the military outlook dictates. The bid for removal of existing limits on the size of the armed forces (2,005,000) fits into the same bracket.

Curbs on consumer credit, priorities and allocations for vital raw materials, devices to block industrial inventory hoarding, loans to stimulate defense output, all these are inevitable steps on the path toward industrial mobilization.

As war as they go, the proposals are satisfactory. But the president should have in mock-up form all the legislation he would need for complete mobilization. If a big war came, we'd be badly strapped without plans ready for instant use.

On the whole the President's program is a definite stride toward acceptance of the fact that the United States is engaged in the most punishing contest for survival we have ever faced—the two world wars excepted. Let's hope it guides the people to greater awareness of the danger.

Are you going away for a vacation or a long weekend? You'll have a better chance to have a home to return to if you make a "fire checkup" before you leave.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters has made some simple suggestions which should be followed to the letter before you take off. Here they are:

Inspect every room for cigarette butts, and empty ashtrays and wastebaskets.

Turn off all electric appliances—radios, fans, lamps and so on—and all gas jets. If you're going to be away for a month or more, pull out all flexible cords from the electric outlets in the walls.

Inspect closets and basement for any accumulation of combustible rubbish and clean it out.

Remove all water-filled jars and bowls from near windows—sunlight shining through such vessels has caused fires.

Have a neighbor inspect your home about once a week, just to be sure everything is all right. Probably he'll be able to spot any trouble before it gets serious.

These are all little things—but it's the little things that can save a home and a life when it comes to fire. Have a fine vacation—and make sure your home will be there when you come back!

One ray of sunshine in the gloomy news from South Korea today is an optimistic dispatch stating that Gen. William Dean, commander of the 24th U. S. Division, last reported as "missing" is now believed leading American stragglers back to Yank lines.

The weatherman certainly looked with favor on the large number of picnics and other outings that were held in the area over the weekend.

Pessimistic news for kiddies: Work is progressing in getting school buildings in shape for the fall term.

In the Driver's Seat

Here And There

This paragraph is in the form of an open letter to Warren baseball players, officials and spectators who enjoy the privileges available at the Warren State Hospital recreation field. Incidents have taken place there the past week or two that are frowned upon by those who have made it possible for local teams to use the baseball diamond, and if they continue, as sure as there is a war in Korea, Warren ball teams and spectators will be denied the use of the field. At the outset when the hospital management granted use of the field and facilities to Warren ball teams and it was understood that there would be no carousing or fighting, and demonstrations were to be confined to quiet arguments that are expected to come up during a baseball game. Fighting is out as well as loud arguments and bickering. We are given to understand that if incidents, similar to one or two that have been witnessed there within the past week or two, are repeated, the order may come out that our midgets, intermediates, Junior and Sunset baseball leagues may be barred from using the field. And while we are on the subject, there has been too much speeding through the grounds by visitors generally, and much of it in connection with the baseball games. This also must cease. Baseball is permitted on the State Hospital field for several reasons, and one of these is to provide wholesome recreation for those patients and employees who have an opportunity to be on hand to watch them. It is not a healthy influence on anyone, either hospital attaches or spectators from Warren, to have games interrupted by quarreling athletes who permit themselves to become unduly exercised when an umpire makes a decision that does not agree with their own ideas. This is not an idle warning, and it would be a wise policy for those responsible to make certain that in the future games at the hospital are free from incidents that are objectionable to the management.

Korean War Sparks Demand For Vast Arms Expenditure

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Demands that the United States start spending 25 per cent of its national income on military defense are being heard in Washington. The idea is that this country must match Soviet Russia's armed strength and mobilize for any emergency. This is not all Pentagon propaganda, either, but civilian advice to the White House.

Best information available is that one-fourth of the Soviet economy is devoted to its military establishment. In terms of U. S. dollars at official exchange rates, the Russian national income is put at $65,000,000,000. Of this, the equivalent of $15,000,000,000 is budgeted for the Russian Army, Navy and Air Force.

On a dollar-for-dollar basis, this is about what the U. S. Department of Defense will have to spend this year. Present appropriations, subject to later revisions, are in round numbers $13,000,000,000 for the Department of Defense, plus $1,000,000,000 foreign military assistance and another billion for atomic energy.

The American national income, however, is $220,000,000,000 a year. The U. S. $15,000,000,000 defense appropriations are only a little less than seven per cent of this total.

What is now being advocated by some of the highest government advisers is that national defense spending be increased to a fourth of the national income, or $55,000,000,000 a year.

MAIN argument for this drastic step is simply that there mustn't be any more Koreans. The U. S. must take the initiative away from Russia.

The North Korean aggression has changed evaluation of Russia's strategy.

The new evaluation is that the Russians may now consider themselves so strong that they can risk outbreak of a major war now.

To meet this situation, it is held that the only thing the United States can do is restore balance of power by building up American air and armored strength to match Russia's.

What an arms race of this kind would mean, tripling or quadrupling U. S. expenditure, is fairly obvious. It would mean sacrifice, higher taxes, an increased draft, at least partial conversion of industry to defense production, allocation of materials, other civilian curbs.

The big jump from $15,000,000,000, to say $55,000,000,000, for a national defense budget could of course not be made over night. Money just couldn't be spent that fast. A $5,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000 increase in expenditures for the rest of 1950 might be all that would be required. But contract authorizations for 1951 deliveries would have to go far beyond that.

A $55,000,000,000 military budget would therefore mean putting the country on a half-war basis. In such a program would be included present outlays for Marshall plan, an expanded Voice of America program, whatever is left of Point IV and other cold war expenditures.

Opposition to any such program would probably be slight. The country is probably ahead of Washington in feeling that now is the time to shoot the works.

One ironic touch to the new advocacy of a $55,000,000,000 defense budget is that in 1949, when the armed services were asked for estimates on what it would take to put the country on a full preparedness basis, the totals came to over $50,000,000,000.

Armed service planners were then told such estimates were crazy. On revision, the services came up with a second estimate of $30,000,000,000. But it was said the country couldn't afford even this.

So the military budget was cut in half. That left us where we were when the North Koreans crossed the 38th parallel on June 25.

found to provide larger income to help maintain it there is grave responsibility that the VFW band will be looking for a new sponsor, or pass out of existence, according to word that comes our way. The band has come to be a fixture in Warren, just as important as the court house, municipal building or welfare organizations. During the 25 years it has been organized the Post and members of the band have been digging deep in their own pockets to keep it going, and there is considerable merit in the argument that some way be found to lift at least part of this burden from the sponsors. Since Harry Summers came to Warren and started making musicians among school groups, it has been a comforting thought to know that Warren had two high class bands. It would indeed show a lack of gratitude, if for any reason the VFW band were permitted to pass out of the picture. Several suggestions have been offered and others are solicited. In the meantime it is hoped that the VFW and Leidy Williams, who has been doing such a wonderful job in keeping the band together as director, will carry on until some arrangement is adopted to make them feel that the band is really appreciated in the community.

This And That:—Opposition in the Kane area on the State Game Commission action in setting a two-day deer season this year, to precede a season on antlered deer, may be expected to take definite form at a meeting of the North Central Division of the Pennsylvania Sportsmen's club at St. Marys July 30. The gathering is the annual summer meeting and picnic. It is being held at the St. Marys Sportsmen's Club farm, five miles north of St. Marys on the Glen Hazel road. . . . The Chamber of Commerce office is about ready to send to press an illustrated pamphlet on the borough of Warren that should do much to advertise the advantages of the area. . . . That wading pool, so popular at the South Side playground, was erected and placed in service by the Warren Lodge of Elks, just ten years ago. . . . The North Warren fire ladders are holding drills to perfect their technique at water battles, we discovered the other evening. . . . And the Pleasant Township truck with a number of volunteers had a try-out in answering a call Friday evening when they sped to the hay stack fire at the William Nicklas farm on Yankee Bush. Seems that the boys from the south were misdirected or misinterpreted the location of the blaze and as a consequence traveled a long detour to reach the scene. They arrived in time, however, to help the North Warren Department extinguish the blaze in what remained of six tons of hay accidentally set afire. . . . Members of Company I, of the 112th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guards, are busy holding drills and priming their equipment for the annual encampment at Indiantown Gap military reservation. The unit will leave Friday for the most important encampment that has been held since the start of World War II. . . . It was rumored that a scout from the Cleveland Indians was expected to witness the game at the State Hospital diamond Saturday between the Forge and Salamanca, N. Y. If he arrived he kept his presence a secret, however. . . . Many members of the Times-Mirror family are suffering today from sunburn, aching joints and crippled fingers as a result of participating in the softball game and other sports that highlighted the picnic sponsored by the boss at his delightful recreation.

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

The death toll in the Italian earthquake which destroyed thousands of houses as well as rich old palaces, cathedrals, and churches, 251 yesterday, was set at 1,778 today. Storms of hurricane proportions, and eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, augmented the terror. A tidal wave struck Naples this morning.

Boys enrolled who will work their way through the Warren aviation school are James Serlanno, William Watson, Paul Loacas, William Iseman, Albert Kesch, Russell Gordon, Lawrence Kabalin, Michael Russo, Thomas Herron, Frank Herron, Malcolm O'Neill, Glenn McGee, Charles Barone, Charles Lezio, Paul Wade and Charles Barton.

Roy Bell, former Warren boy, who conducts the zoo at Waterford, will be the speaker at Thursday's meeting of the Corry Kiwanis Club.

Sheriff Jefferson returned from Easton, where he attended the convention of county sheriffs.

The tree-sitting craze has hit Warren. Two south side boys, Vance Ross 14, and Norman Smith 13, staged their exhibition among the branches today receiving their food by means of an improvised lift. After nine and one half hours on their leafy perch, the boys came down and are busy making plans for trying again next week, hoping to better their record by six days.

The Rev. Harold A. McCurdy and Dr. C. T. Greer will exchange pulpits for the evening service of worship this coming Sunday.

War Bulletin: More than 60 German and British planes engaged in a terrific battle over a town on the southeast coast of England today as the Germans raided from coast to coast. Over 100 bombs were dropped.

Proposals for compulsory military training were criticized by Senator A. H. Vandenberg, Republican, of Michigan, who said he questioned the necessity of peace time conscription to fill the expanding ranks of the nation's armed forces.

There is no end in sight of the current heat wave in Pennsylvania. The nation today counted 68 deaths from heat prostration and 179 drownings.

There were forty present at a farewell dinner at Van Buren Bay Inn last night for Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey E. Davis, who are leaving for Clearfield. Mr. Davis has resigned as the Y secretary.

One of the most popular additions to the borough's playground equipment is the new wading pool at the South Side playground, which was completed and opened to the children this week.

Neva Mills, Donald Hagberg Choose Sisters and Brothers As Bridal Party

Wearing white lace and net, Neva DeLeo Mills, daughter of John S. Mills, of Lander, became the bride of Donald Victor Hagberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hagberg, Scandia, in a ceremony performed at 3 p. m. July 22 in Lander Methodist church.

Rev. Gustav Erickson, assisted by Rev. K. E. Pearson of Scandia, performed the double ring service in the presence of approximately 200 guests. Ferns provided the simple setting at the altar.

Mrs. Donald Ludwick, pianist, used the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Franklin Hagberg, Sugar Grove, cousin of the bridegroom, whose numbers were "Thine Alone", "At Dawning", and "Through the Years", with "The Lord's Prayer" sung during the ceremony.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown modeled with bodice of Chantilly lace extending over the skirt in peplum effect, illusion neckline, long sleeves pointed over the hands, and a full net skirt ending in a train. A halo of net, decorated with pearls and encircled with a tiny upright ruffle of lace, held her fingertip veil of net, which was bordered with a wide banding of lace. Her arm bouquet was of white glads and a pearl necklace and ear rings were her only jewelry.

In similar ensembles were her three sisters, Marian as maid of honor in Nile green; Ruth and Norma, the bridesmaids, wearing orchid. Their frocks were styled with cap sleeves, each had matching mitts, and open-crown, off-the-face hats. The honor attendant carried a basket of yellow glads and the others had basket-bouquets of yellow hue.

Little Penny Abel, Warren RD 2, niece of the bridegroom and serving as ring bearer, carried the rings on a white satin pillow, her frock was of white organdy and in her hair she wore a tiara of white sweet peas.

Groomsmen were all brothers of the bridegroom, Robert Hagberg of Erie as best man, Richard and Laverne Hagberg, Scandia, as ushers.

Mrs. Vincent Mills, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a navy afternoon dress, with pink accessories and pink rose corsage completing her costume. The bridegroom's mother wore pink roses with a pale green dress.

The reception was held in the Lander community house immediately following the ceremony, with miniature bridal figures topping the five-tier cake which centered the bride's table. Aides were Mrs. Donald Mills, Mrs. Leo Mills, Mrs. Earl Abel, Mrs. Robert Hagberg, Mrs. Robert Bacchetti and Mrs. Harry Sarvis.

Guests were from Dewittville, Syracuse, Newark, Ashville, Buffalo, Jamestown, Lakewood, Celoron, N. Y.; Erie, Irvine, Meadville, Warren, Russell, Scandia, Sugar Grove, Chancellors Valley and Ridgway.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will reside in Lander. For traveling, the bride selected a brown and white bemberg sheer, white accessories and an American Beauty corsage.

Mrs. Hagberg was graduated from Lander High School in 1942 and from Hoff Business College in 1944, and has since been employed as secretary to Dr. J. T. Valone. Her husband, alumnus of Warren High with the Class of 1941, served two and one-half years in the U. S. Air Force in World War II, and is employed by Smith-Horton.

Pre-nuptial hostesses have been

Alberta Louise Sears-Kenneth F. Gill Wed Sat. In Cable Hollow Church

Alberta Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Sears, of Akel-ey, became the bride of Kenneth F. Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gill of Jackson, Mich., in the Cable Hollow Evangelical United Brethren church, July 22.

Rev. Arthur J. Vrooman officiated for the double ring ceremony at 3 p. m. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and palms, with candelabra holding white tapers as the central motif. The church pianist, Mrs. Howard Fox, played a short recital of wedding music preceding the ceremony. She also played the traditional Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches. Margaret Crooks of Corydon, was the soloist, singing "At Dawning," "I Love Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her gown, fashioned of white marquisette, was styled with a high neckline and stand-up collar, with long sleeves ending in petal cuffs. Tiny buttons fastened the fitted bodice, which dipped into a point in the full skirt, which ended, in turn, in a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged in Chantilly lace, fell from a tiara of lilacs of the valley, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli.

Attending her as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Franklin Nordland, of Jamestown, N. Y., gowned in maize marquisette styled with peter pan collar and cap sleeves in a fitted bodice. She wore a matching sweetheart hat and mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of green shasta daisies and baby's breath, showered with streamers.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Lewis Wears, wearing sea green marquisette in the same style as Mrs. Nordland's, matching hat and mitts, and carrying a showered colonial bouquet of yellow shasta daisies and baby's breath.

Kathleen Lou Sears, as her aunt's flower girl, wore pink dotted swiss, with matching sweetheart hat and gloves and carried a nosegay of pink sweet peas and baby's breath. Darryl Ellberg, ring bearer, was dressed in white linen and carried the rings on a heart-shaped pillow of white satin.

Groomsmen were Melvin Gill, Toledo, O., as best man; Marvin Gill, Jackson, Mich., and James Simpson, Buffalo, N. Y., as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a gray print with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother, in peacock blue crepe, had white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

For the reception which followed immediately in the bride's home, 125 guests were served from a buffet table appointed with pink roses and sweet peas. The three-tiered wedding cake, cut by Mrs. Bernard Joy, formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Frank DiPasquale poured and aides were Mrs. Charles Joy and Mrs. Ralph Walker. Dale Holcomb, of Warren, was accompanied by Mrs. Howard Fox for two vocal selections, "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and "Through the Years."

Guests included those from Arlington, Ill.; Toledo, O.; Jackson and Homer, Mich.; Buffalo, Jamestown, N. Y.; Stoneboro, Erie, Warren, Russell and Akel-ey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill left later for a motor trip to northern Michigan, after which they will reside in Buffalo. For travel the bride chose a navy silk suit, white accessories and gardenias.

The bride, a graduate of Jamestown Business College and Warren Conservatory of Music, has been employed by Buffalo Children's Hospital for the past two and one-half years.

Mr. Gill received his master of science degree from University of Michigan and is employed as a chemist for the National Aniline Corporation, Buffalo.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Mrs. Marshall Peterson, Mrs. Bernard Joy, Mrs. George Joy, Mrs. Charles Joy and Mrs. Frank DiPasquale; Mrs. Lewis Sears and Mrs. Franklin Nordland; Patricia Paul of Buffalo; and the research department at Children's Hospital. The rehearsal party was held at the bride's home, when attendants were favored with gifts. A bachelor affair for the bridegroom was given by the research lab of National Aniline.

Eleanor Rowland, Mrs. Robert Bacchetti and Mrs. Harry Sarvis; Lander Sunday school board, Elaine Swanson; Mrs. Victor Hagberg, Mrs. Earl Abel and Mrs. Donald Mills. The rehearsal party-luncheon was given by Mrs. Victor Hagberg at the bride's home on Friday evening.

COMMUNION SERVICES
Two services of Holy Communion are scheduled in Trinity Memorial Episcopal church for Thursday, 7:30, and 10 a. m.
The communion service planned for Tuesday, St. James' Day, has been canceled, it is announced today.

★ RUTH MILLETT ★ TV Won't Replace Parents For Bringing Up Children

WORRIED about the effect your television set is having on your children?
If so, you can find some reassuring and good advice on the subject in an article by Elizabeth Hurllock in the current issue of "Today's Health," published by the American Medical Association.
Any parents who conscientiously follow Dr. Hurllock's advice ought to have the television problem licked.
One of her suggestions for the wise handling of television in the home could apply equally well to other diversions besides TV.
That is: "Television should not be confused with paragon—it must never be used just to keep children quiet and out of mischief."

SAME IS TRUE OF COMICS
THAT'S as true of comic books as of television. An occasional comic book isn't going to hurt any child. But parents who buy comic books as fast as they are published for their children, just because a kid with a comic book is a quiet kid, are falling down on their job.
So are the parents who use the movies as a place to take care of Junior whenever he happens to be in the way. A good movie occasionally is a fine treat for children—but parking kids in any old movie any time Mama and Papa want to get rid of them for half a day is a vicious habit.
It's silly for parents to pretend—even to themselves—that they can't cope with the effect that movies, television and comic books have on their children.
Used wisely and with discretion all three can add to their children's pleasure with no harm done. It's when the parents themselves come to depend on these forms of amusement for taking care of their children for them that the trouble begins.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

HERE'S a budget dish full of color and flavor that's perfect for hot day meals:

Tuna Tomato Rarebit
(Serves 4)

Four toast rounds or 4 Holland rusk, butter or fortified margarine, 1 can tuna fish, 4 thick slices tomato, salt.

Spread each toast round or Holland rusk with butter or margarine; cover tops generously with flaked tuna. Place slice of tomato on top of each; sprinkle with salt. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Top with cheese sauce.

Cheese Sauce
(Serves 4)

One tablespoon butter or fortified margarine, 1 tablespoon flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ cup milk, ½ cup grated sharp cheese, ¼ cup chopped green pepper.

Melt butter or margarine in top of double boiler, over boiling water. Blend in flour, mustard and salt. Add milk and stir until thickened. Add cheese and green pepper and cook over low heat until melted.

With the cost of food so high, the importance of budget menus increases. The following examples have been worked out by expert nutritionists.

Dinner: Smoked tongue slices with raisin sauce, baked sweets, snap beans, mixed green salad bread, butter or fortified margarine, rhubarb sauce, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Stuffed shoulder of lamb with spinach, baked acorn squash, cucumber relish, bread, butter or fortified margarine, fresh cherry pie (crumb crust), coffee, milk.

Dinner: Clam chowder, kidney bean salad bowl, hot biscuits, butter or fortified margarine, floating island with blueberries, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Lamb shanks with vegetable gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered green squash, cole slaw, bread, butter or fortified margarine, sponge cake squares, coffee, milk.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, soft-cooked eggs, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, raspberry jam, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Tuna tomato rarebit, watermelon, iced tea, milk.

DINNER: Chicken liver saute with mushrooms, rice and bacon, broiled tomato halves, buttered peas, enriched soft rolls, butter or fortified margarine, mixed green salad, cultivated blueberries, cream, cookies, coffee, milk.

Warren High School's Class of 1925 held its silver anniversary reunion Saturday at the National Forge clubhouse at Irvine, with 52 members present in a total attendance of 88 persons.

Table appointments carried out the silver anniversary motif and class colors, with bouquets of red and white flowers and class numerals in silver on each table. Marking each place was a reunion booklet containing names, addresses and histories of class members, along with varied data and statistics. The committee is most proud of the fact that it has records of all but two members of the class of 1925.

Following serving by the committee of a delicious dinner, the group assembled outdoors for the picture above and group singing led by Boyd Sanden and Gerald Johnson, the latter with his piano accompaniment. This portion of the program included many tunes of the '25 era and created just the right atmosphere for the hit of the evening—a style show featuring leading modes of 1925.

Models for the review were Bessie Larsen Stone, Louise Cogswell Stohl, Sheridan Brown, Cressler "Beany" Heasley, Vera Lyon, Mary Ball Conway, Kenneth Clapp, Louise Blanchard Clapp, Rachel Winger Eaton, Charles "Chick" Eaton, Margaret Folkman Dorsey, Mary and Martha Topper, Bill Rice, Betty Critchlow Hesch, and Mary Louise Andrews Amy. Styles included evening gowns, midday blouses and gym bloomers, cooking school apron and cap, raccoon coat, football sweaters and fancy golf knickers.

After this hilariously outstanding event, Boyd Sanden was presented as master of ceremonies for awarding prizes to members with the least hair, the most children, the newest baby, etc. Ivan Sheldon presented each one with a souvenir miniature baseball bat.

Reports and acknowledgments were given by Charles Eaton, Rachel Eaton, Mary Conway, Martha Topper and Helene McClure; notes and letters from out of town members were read.

The session was concluded with a vote to hold another reunion in five years, with Helene Wood McClure as general chairman.

Those present from outside Warren were Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Brown, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barto, Bradford; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown, York; Virginia Corbett, Menlo Park, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clapp, Tona; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cable, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eberhardt, Winter Park, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Cressler Heasley, Ithaca, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson, Vera Lyon, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larson, Mt. Jewett; Paul Morton, Rochester, N. Y.; Hazel Schuler, Buffalo, N. IT'S DEATH, MY DARLING!

By Amelia Reynolds Long

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 25

BOBBY gave a little, terrified whimper, and hid her face against Henri's coat.

"So that's why you went tearing out of there!" Amédée exclaimed. "Henri, you infernal idiot!"

"It's easy enough for you to ridicule the idea of the supernatural," Henri said defiantly. "But, how do you explain the opened casket?"

"I'd have sense enough to realize that those screws couldn't have been unfastened from the inside of the casket. They'd have to be removed from the outside."

"That doesn't explain why the screws were removed in the first place," he said doggedly. "Or who did it."

"Uncle Raoul did, probably," Amédée replied. "I can't tell you why, because I don't know. Now can you go inside and telephone the coroner without going into a trance?"

Henri rose with an air of injured dignity, and went into the house. Bobby, with a half reproachful glance at Amédée, followed.

"Did you know about the screws before he mentioned them, Dédé?" I inquired.

"Yes," he answered. "The sheriff discovered that they'd been removed."

"What does he think about it?" I asked.

He hesitated, then replied reluctantly. "He thinks Lee did it."

Amédée came over and sat down upon the gallery floor at my feet.

"I'll tell you the sheriff's theory, Peter," he said soberly, "and you can see if it makes sense to you. He thinks that Lee, inspired by Claude's death, killed his father in order to get the double inheritance; that he started to hide the body in the coffin with Grandpère, then lost his nerve; that later he fell to brooding over what he had done, and in remorse killed himself with the same weapon he had used to kill his father."

"Dédé, you don't actually believe that, do you?" I demanded. He passed his hand through his tousled hair.

"I hardly know what I believe," he answered wearily.

AN HOUR or so later, the sheriff came and asked to speak to us all together.

"I only wanted to tell you that the coroner's agreed to let Mr. Raoul's death pass as suicide. So when we hold the inquest—"

He got no further than that. Beau shot out of his chair as though it had been a catapult.

"What do you mean, you'll let my father's death pass as suicide, Jeff Wilkes?" he demanded savagely. "It was suicide."

The sheriff didn't answer directly.

"After I left here this morning," he began, "I made some inquiries about that will of your grandpa's I found he'd left orders that if any of you died, that one's share of the estate was to go to his next of kin. In your cousin Claude's case, that was your father. In his own case, it could have been both you and your brother Lee; but according to a strict reading of the law, it might have been just Lee."

Beau stared at him for a minute. Then he gave a short, harsh laugh.

"You fool!" he exclaimed contemptuously. "You complete, damned fool!"

The sheriff's face flamed. "I've tried to be decent about this," he said. "But if that's the way you feel about it, I'll not hush anything up. We'll see how smart you are, Mr. Beau Dumont, at explaining to a jury why your father and your brother should have committed suicide."

"That won't be necessary, Sheriff," Pick said quietly. "I can tell you."

"Beau is right," she went on, gently putting Lewis Haye aside as he attempted to stop her. "My father and my brother Lee both did commit suicide. You see, they both believed that I had killed Claude, the same as Beau did at first when he tried to lie that morning to protect me."

The sheriff was looking utterly dumfounded.

"It's just the sort of fool thing these Dumonts would have done, too," he muttered half to himself.

With a brief nod of farewell, he turned and left the room. A moment later, he heard the front door close behind him.

While Pick had been speaking, Beau had stood staring at her as though he had been frozen into immobility. "I didn't know you thought that, Pick," he said. "But you're wrong, Father's and Lee's deaths had nothing to do with you. There was another reason."

"What other could there have been?"

"I can't tell you that," he answered. "But you've got to believe me, Pick. A reason did exist."

"If you know the truth, you'd better tell her, Beau," Cousin Jeff put in.

"I can't," he groaned. There was desperation in his voice now. "I can't tell any of you. Oh, not because I think it might drive the rest of you to suicide. But for you to have to live with the knowledge..."

"With what knowledge?" Henri demanded suddenly. "Beau, what's wrong with us Dumonts? I want to know. I've got a right to."

"That's true," Amédée said. "Remember, Henri and I are planning to be married."

"All right," he flung out with a sort of brutal defiance. "You've both asked for it, so here it is: You can't get married; none of us can. We've got to let the Dumont line die out. There's a curse on the family—the curse of insanity!"

"What?" Amédée was out of his chair as though there had been a steel spring inside of him, and somebody had released it. "Beau, you're—"

"Crazy?" Beau finished for him, his mouth twisting with the word into the bitter mockery of a grin. "Yes, Dédé, I am. Or I shall be before I die. That's the thing Grandfather had found out."

PLAYGROUNDS TO HAVE PET SHOW WEDNESDAY

The special Pet Show, held annually at all Warren borough playgrounds has been scheduled by Director Inez Rudolph and her staff for Wednesday of this week. Details will be announced in these columns on Tuesday.

Last week's special attraction was the Huck Finn, Betty Thatcher Day staged at the wading pool at the South Side area, with new records set in entries for the competition and attendance.

Over 50 children and parents attended a western barbecue wienner roast at Home street playground Friday evening, when the youngsters all came dressed as cowboys and Indians and all reports indicate a splendid time.

Attendance figures for the week climbed to 7,506, an increase of 1,769 over the week before. Lacy remains in the lead, with a total of 1,825 for the week, despite the two special events listed above.

SAME, YET DIFFERENT

The salmon and the eel both belong to the fish family, yet, at spawning time, the salmon travels thousands of miles to reach fresh water, while the eel travels thousands of miles to reach the ocean.

The chikarah, an antelope found in India and Tibet, has four horns instead of the conventional two.

POLIO STRIKES AGAIN—Ambulance attendants carry Mrs. Sidney Culver, 30, daughter of National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis President Basil O'Connor, to the Medical College of Virginia Hospital at Richmond. Diagnosed as a polio victim, Mrs. Culver reportedly has a good chance to recover completely.

PROBE OUT OF BEACHHEAD—Yank infantrymen of the 1st Cavalry Division move cautiously toward the front after establishing beachhead at Pohang, on east coast of South Korea. These troops were expected to see action guarding U. S. communication and supply lines.

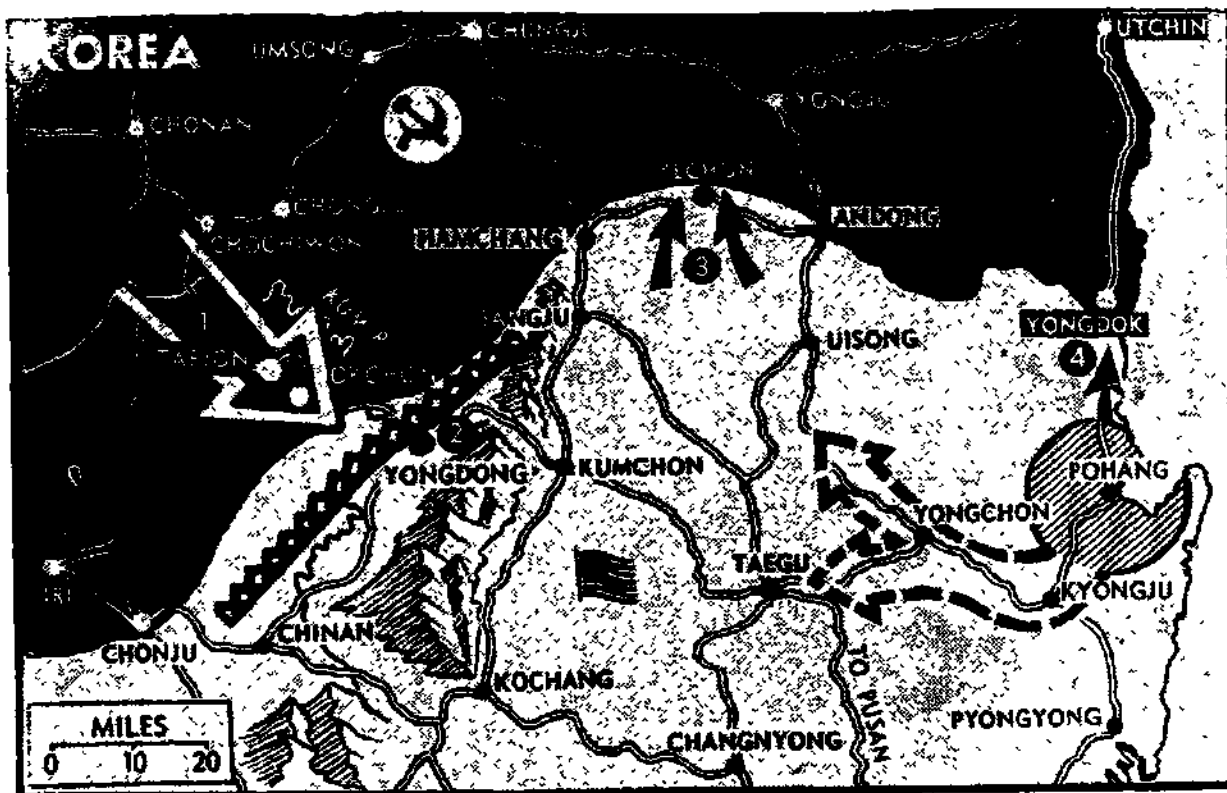

SUPER-MARKETING—Two Berlin housewives try out their new "shopping car," designed by Helmut Batenuth, German automobile engineer. The car weighs 540 pounds and has a 62-horsepower rear engine. The designer says it could be sold for $450 if produced on a mass scale.

CAPTURED REDS GO FOR A WALK—Communist North Koreans captured in battle somewhere in South Korea are marched to the rear with mixed expressions of arrogance and dejection written on their faces. The prisoners are required by regulations to hold hands.

MEDICAL CASE—U. S. Army Medical Corpsmen, somewhere in South Korea, take time out to "examine" a case of Korean cider found at a front line position. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff photographer Ed Hoffman.)

REDS FORCE YANKS BACK—Map shows where U. S. 21st Regiment fought stubborn withdrawal battle near Okchon, seven miles southeast of fallen Taejon (1). Immediate North Korean objective seemed to be Yongdong (2) as Reds sought to cut off retreating Yank rear guard, falling back to the Taebek Mountains (jagged symbol) where new defense line is being erected. South Koreans (3) recaptured Yechon and attacked near Yongdok (4), coastal city bombarded by U. S. and British cruisers. Shaded area around Pohang shows U. S. 1st Cavalry beachhead, with open arrows indicating likely routes to battlefronts.

POLIO PRECAUTIONS

RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

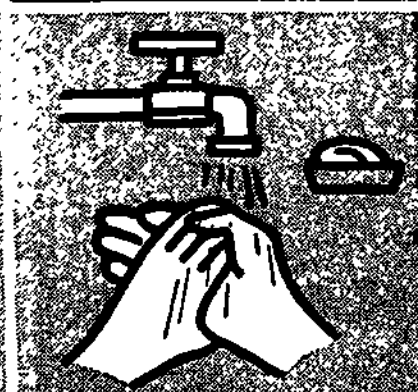

AVOID NEW GROUPS

DON'T GET OVERTIRED

DON'T GET CHILLED

KEEP CLEAN

WHEN POLIO IS AROUND, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis recommends these simple precautions: Keep children with their own friends and away from people they have not been with right along. Don't become exhausted through work or hard play. Don't stay too long in cold water or sit around in wet clothes. And always wash hands before eating. Watch for feverishness, sore throat, headache, upset stomach or sore muscles. They may—or may not—mean polio. Call your doctor and then, if help is needed contact

P-O-R-T-O-R-I-A-L-S

(By Joe Gardner)

Warren baseball fans realize that veteran "Pike" Peterson is the longest and most successful baseball careers in the state. "Pike," christened Axel Peterson, first stepped into baseball with Flint, Michigan in the year 1912. The following year he was sent to Fort Wayne, Indiana where he was such a winner that Ottawa, Ontario bought his contract and he became the Canadian city in the spring of 1916. From Ottawa he moved into uniform with the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League. At the close of the 1920 season he was sold to the Chicago White Sox where he won one hundred and four games in the baseball seasons, a consistent average of better than 20 wins. At the close of the 1925 season he was sold to the St. Louis Cardinals. "Pike's" active baseball career ended with the Senators of the New York, Pennsylvania League, he moved to Warren in the year 1927 to stay active in local baseball for another 12 years, finally hanging up his spikes once a year with the Old Timers.

Toronto, Ontario, he won 18 games, losing only 5 against the White Sox. He was an All-Star in 1927. "Pike" was active in the International League that year and only one other mentioned mound artists, each later to become famous. "Pike's" baseball career extended over a period of 27 years. This is exceptional for a pitcher. When asked if he will ever return to the Old Timers' battle against James-23, he merely shrugged his shoulders, flexed that good old arm and said, "Why Not?"

Each had two hits, also gets credit for 1's.

California Produces Again; Patty Gives U. S. Tennis Lift

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—California, where tennis players grow with oranges and movies, once again has provided a magnet to fill the Forest Hills horseshoe.

This one, John Edward Patty, comes via Paris. Budge Patty, 26, a six-foot two-inch international playboy turned serious, is handsome enough to be a fugitive from Hollywood.

Patty was not born with a silver racket in his hand. No big-name professionals taught him the finer points. He simply walked onto public courts at a very early age, started swinging and polished his game.

After winning the All-England singles at Wimbledon, he said he owed it all to big steaks, no parties, no cigarettes and the good Pauline Betz, meaning his boyhood playmate.

World War II and his fondness for the continent has limited Patty's appearances at Forest Hills, where he was last seen in 1948.

A GI furlough in Paris convinced the square-faced Irish lad that he should stay in the French capital and divide his time between an exporting and importing business and having a continental fling, with an occasional light-hearted game of tennis.

It was not until this year that he concentrated on getting the most out of his remarkable ability that made him the national boys' champion at 15.

California never lets the tennis people down. Patty replaces Pancho Gonzales on the Davis Cup team, pairs with Ted Schroeder in the singles of the Challenge Round, Aug. 25-27, when Billy Talbert and Gardiner Mulloy will again represent this country in doubles. He'll bid for the national singles championship, Aug. 28-Sept. 4, after warming up in the Eastern Grass Court, starting in Orange, N. J., July 31, and at Newport and Longwood.

Patty lacks the power associated with the American game, but his easy flow of strokes is reminiscent of Eric Sturgess, the stylish South African.

With all his continental charm and suavity, Patty is really quite shy and inhibited. He speaks in a well-modulated voice, is an immaculate dresser.

Tennis galleries will welcome Budge Patty as the latest American hope to stand against the challenge of Australia's brilliant young stars, Jaroslav Drobny, Eric Sturgess and other foreign luminaries.

All this and a matinee idol, too.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

GREEDY BID SAVED BY BRILLIANT PLAY

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service. If I were a strict moralist, I would not be talking about this hand. South was greedy, and he should have been punished. The truth of the matter, however, is that he got away with his greediness.

The first two rounds of bidding were quite good. However, it was very wrong of South to jump to four spades. He knew that he could contribute six tricks towards a no-trump contract. It should have been clear that three no-trump was likely to be a far easier contract than four spades.

As we have observed, however, South was greedy. He wanted to collect not only the game and rubber but also the 150 honors in spades. He very nearly lost all save honors.

West opened the seven of hearts.

dummy played the jack, and East won with the queen. East quickly cashed the ace of hearts and returned the suit, allowing West to ruff. West returned the jack of diamonds to South's ace, and now declarer had his work cut out for him.

South drew three rounds of trumps, discarding a low club from dummy on the third trump.

He then led a club to dummy, cashing the ace and king of that suit and ruffing a third round. He had hoped for a 3-3 break of the clubs. In order to find a parking place for his nine of hearts. When the clubs failed to break, South led his last trump.

At this point, South had a trump, a heart, and a diamond.

West had to come down to two cards, and had to save a club to prevent dummy's six of clubs from becoming established. He therefore saved only one diamond.

Dummy could then afford to discard the last club, saving only the king and three of diamonds. It was now East's turn to discard.

He held the ten of hearts, and two diamonds. If he discarded the ten of hearts, South's nine of hearts would become good. East therefore also discarded a diamond.

At this point, South could lead his low diamond to dummy's king, dropping all of the remaining diamonds. Dummy's three of diamonds took the last trick.

Perhaps there really is a moral in this tale. Don't bid greedily unless you can play hands as well as South played this one!

Tribute Is Paid By Salvation Army To Memory of Leader

General Evangeline Booth, retired, and daughter of the founder of the Salvation Army, was paid tribute in an impressive memorial service conducted Sunday evening in the citadel of the Warren Corps of the world-wide organization.

Program numbers were as follows: Opening song—There Is a Better World, remarks, Major Charles Schaffer; reading from "Biography of General Evangeline Booth", Mrs. Schaffer, song—Shall We Gather At the River; prayer led by Cadet Mervin Sedlar; song—Farther Along—Starbrick Quartet, composed of Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Toner, Mr. Schwanke, Mr. Huckabone.

Commissioning of new local officers by Major Schaffer: Young people's sergeant major, Mrs. Ethel Reist, assistant Home League secretary, Mrs. Nora Laufberger; assistant Young People's League secretary, Marcella Lichtenberger.

Song—Beyond the Sunset—Starbrick Quartet; announcements Major Schaffer, appreciation for flowers given by Warren florists: Ekey's, Offerle's, Crescent Floral Gardens, Virg-Ann; corps soldiers and friends; address—The Crown of Life—Mrs. Schaffer; poem—Gone To Be With Jesus, written by Adjutant Martha Grenfall; song—My Home Is in Heaven; song—God Be With You Till We Meet Again; benediction, Major Schaffer.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY
City police and Deputy Sheriff Sandy Secor over the weekend arrested and charged Walter Hall, 1207 Pennsylvania avenue, east, and Leroy Magee, of Sugar Grove RD 4, with larceny. The two men allegedly stole a quantity of lease equipment from the Blaine Mead lease on Morrison Run early last week and disposed of it at a local junk yard. The equipment, which included a chain driven clutch, was valued at about $200. Magee was arranged Saturday afternoon and Hall this morning, both before Justice of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund. Both entered a plea of guilty and waived hearing for Court. They were remanded to the county jail in default of $500 bail each.

AT GREAT LAKES
Word has been received that Jerry Landers, who recently enlisted in the Navy, is now stationed at Great Lakes, Ill., where he is undergoing boot training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Landers, of 9 Carpenter street.

WASHINGTON REPORT

FRANCIS J. MYERS
U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania

Slum clearance plans are being drawn up in communities all over Pennsylvania. Run-down residential areas and shabby commercial districts are being eyed by local planning officials for redevelopment into parks and modern residential or commercial districts.

Community planning takes years of patient work. Adequate housing must be available for families living in areas to be cleared. Careful thought must go into deciding whether an area is best suited for dwelling, industrial or commercial purposes. Questions of handling traffic become important. And, of course, the matter of raising funds for urban redevelopment presents difficult problems.

Slum clearance is a deficit operation. Newly-cleared land rarely sells for what it costs to purchase land and clear away existing buildings. Private enterprise has done little slum clearance for this reason—and most communities lack funds to finance such projects.

Community modernization does pay off in the long run, however. Slum buildings are often unprofitable to their owners. Slums provide inadequate housing and a wretched environment for the families forced to live in them. Communities frequently find that tax revenues from run-down districts rarely meet the much higher costs required for additional fire, police and health facilities needed to combat the disease and delinquency existing in slum areas. But once a way is found to clear off the land, new housing and profitable commercial properties can be erected to put the area on a sound economic footing.

The 1949 Housing Act gave community redevelopment a big boost. Under the Act, the 81st Congress authorized a 5-year program of Federal grants that will enable communities to offset two-thirds of the costs involved in clearing away blighted areas. Here are the details:

... $100,000,000 are authorized yearly for local redevelopment grants

... Any Pennsylvania city or county—by a vote of its governing body—may request that a Federal grant be reserved for a local project

... A local public agency is created to plan and carry out the project

... Federal loans are also available for 1) preliminary study of community redevelopment needs; 2) detailed study and final plans for identified projects; and 3) the purchase of the land to be cleared

... The reserved Federal grants are available after the local funds, equal to one-third of the total cost, have been raised.

Local communities must draw up their own programs, and are allowed broad discretion in drafting plans to meet local needs. However, the Federal law requires that certain factors be considered before approving grants for a local program. A project cannot be approved unless:

... it offers private enterprise a maximum opportunity to redevelop the land once it is cleared

... it is part of an over-all, long-range community modernization plan

... its primary purpose is to move families from slums into adequate housing—that is, run-down residential areas may be cleared for ultimate commercial use only when decent housing is available elsewhere. On the other hand, dilapidated industrial areas may be redeveloped for dwelling purposes only. In no case may cleared land be re-sold for speculative purposes.

A dozen Pennsylvania redevelopment projects are in the planning stage now—and $15 million in Federal grants are reserved for authorized programs in Allegheny and Beaver Counties, in the cities of Ambler, Beaver Falls, Easton, Harrisburg, McKeesport, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Uniontown, and in the Boroughs of Rochester and East Rochester. Philadelphia and Beaver Falls projects are in the final planning stage and others are nearing that point. It's not too late to reserve a Federal grant if your city or county hasn't yet done so. It takes time to plan—and it's worthwhile to have a community redevelopment plan on the shelf, ready for use when future events permit work to start. If you're interested, ask your local officials what they're planning—and further details may be had by writing the Division of Slum Clearance and Urban Redevelopment, Housing and Home Finance Agency, Washington 25, D. C.

Blue Jay Reunion At Wildcat Park Is Very Well Attended

Sheffield, July 24—The annual Blue Jay reunion held yesterday afternoon at Wildcat Park, Ludlow attracted 104 persons, some even coming from as far away as Ontario, Canada.

C. K. Heasley, of Rew, was elected president and C. R. Cuthbertson, of Cyclopedia, was named secretary-treasurer. Next year's reunion has been set for July 29, 1951, at Wildcat Park.

A five pound 12 ounce boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Felton at 2:35 p. m. Saturday at the Warren General Hospital. The child has been named Ronald Lawrence. The Feltons have two other children, Sandra, age six, and Marcia, who is three years old.

Roe E. Farnsworth, well-known Sheffielder, manager of the Sheffield Water Co. and former township supervisor, is celebrating his 71st birthday today.

Roe recalls that when he was a boy his parents always cautioned him not to wander far from home. Well, he has heeded their words to the letter for the past 71 years.

Roe has been a Sheffield and Saybrook resident all his life, and even today he lives within a mile of his birthplace.
